Minutes
College of Arts and Sciences
Committee for Undergraduate Education
March 11, 2015
College Alumni Conference Room, Owen Hall
3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Attendees: John Lucaites (COLL), Troy Byler (GER), Catherine Kregge (student), Lisa Gershkoff (SPHS), Marla Sandys (CJUS), David Halloran (COLL), Sandra Shapshay (PHIL), Stephanie De Boer (CMCL/MSCH), Mike McGregor (TEL/MSCH), Gardner Bovingdon (CEUS/SGIS), Amy Holtzworth-Munroe (PSY)

Ex-officio: Justin Grossman (COLL), Kirstine Lindemann (COLL), Terri Greenslade (COLL)

Regrets: Richard Nance (REL), Matthew Shepherd (PHYS),

- Action Items
  - Approved as corrected Minutes from February 25, 2015
  - Approved Recommendations to Standardize the Numbers, Titles and Course Characteristics for Experiential Learning Courses Offered Across the College
  - Rejected a proposal for a minor from the Program in Jewish Studies due to incongruities in the requirements regarding Hebrew language coursework for students with primary degrees inside and outside the College.
  - Approved a proposal from the Department of English to create a minor in Communication and Public Advocacy*

- Discussion Items:
  - Intensive Writing Learning Outcomes

* Several members left the meeting prior to the discussion of the Communication and Public Advocacy proposal in accord with the CUE’s conflict of interest policy. Dean Lucaites teaches many of the courses listed in the proposal, and Sandy Shapshay and Mike McGregor serve on the advisory board for the Public and Civic Engagement certificate program, which had minor to absent themselves from the meeting.