

You are Invited to a Lunch Workshop

CULTIVATE YOUR CULTURAL INTELLIGENCE (CQ+)

Friday, September 20, 2019

Noon - 1:30 p.m.

Mathers Museum - 416 N. Indiana Avenue

About the Lunch Workshop

Have you ever encouraged or required students to visit one of the campus cultural centers to complete a classroom assignment or project? Have you wondered what it might be like for a Latinx or a queer student to be the subject or “object” of student assignments? Are you curious about how you might partner with an OVPDEMA cultural center or academic unit in a mutually beneficial way?

Join us for lunch! Come learn from OVPDEMA directors about the work of the cultural centers and academic units, and take away concrete strategies on how to orient your and your students' behavior, language, communications, values, and ethic perceptions to the identities and realities of others who are different from you.
